A GRAND VIRGINIA DISCOVERY. COME FOUR MONTHS SINCE, our excellent townsman, NAPHTALI EZEKIEL, informed us that he had prepared a hair restorer with which he was experimenting upon his own head, whose top was entirely bald. We saw him two days crop of hair has sprung up with a vigorous growth. So house and necessary outbildings. convinced is Mr. EZEKIEL of the efficacy of his discovery that he has named it "THE INFALLIBLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER." Mr. E. is about going into an extensive manfacture of an article which is destined to prove of anxious interest to our bald pated friends .- From Richmond Enquirer, December 12th, 1859. This famous article can now be had of the principal Druggists. Those persons who desire a fine head of hair, have only to use the restorer according to printed directions on the bottle. Those who have any doubts of its efficacy, can have them removed in a short time, by using the INFALLI-BLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER, proving that it is all that it is claimed to be. Wholesale depot for orders, 69 Main Street.

I. N. FZEKIEL, take cath on the Holy Bible, that I have been bald for the past 12 years, and have restored my hair by using EZEKIEL'S VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER.

FEVER AND AGUE, by the poisonous miasm of vegetable decay. This exhalation is evolved by the action of solar heat on wet soil, and rises with the watery vapor from it While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the earth's surface, and the virus is taken with it through the lungs into the blood. There it acts as an irritating poison on the internal viscera and excreting organs of the body. The liver becomes tor-pid and fails to secrete not only this virus, but also the bile from the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the circulation, and produce violent constitutional disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, and the stomach sympathize with of our organism, as if in an attempt to expel the noxious infusion, concentrates the whole blood of the body in the internal excretories to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. This is the CHILL. But in this effort it fails .-Then the FEVER follows, in which the blood leaves the central organs and rushes to the surface, as if in another effort to expel the irritating poison through that other great ex-

We have labored to find, and have found, an antidote, AYER'S AGUE CURE, which neutralizes this malarious poison in the blood, and diately on the Cape Fear River, containing 152 acres, about stimulates the liver to expel it from the body. As it should, 2 miles from the above plantation, all fenced for the purpose cessive weeks in the Wilmington Journal, a newspaper pub-And it does more, or rather does what is of more service to adapted to Corn. Peas, Pumkins, &c. Also, there is any dants to be and appear at the next term of this Court, to those subject to this infection. If taken in season it expels quantity of OAK AND ASH WOOD handy to the river, it from the system as it is absorbed, and thus keeps those who use it free from its attacks; keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease. Consequently it not only although exposed to the disease. Consequently it not only cures, but protects from the great variety of affections which are induced by this maliguant influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodical Headache, or Billious Headache, Billious Fevers, Neuralgia, Rheu-matism, Gout, Blindness, Toothace, Earache, Catarrh Asthma Palpitations, Painful Affections of the Spleen, Hysterics. Colic, Paralysis, and Painful Affections of the Stomach and Bowels, all of which, when arising from this cause, will be found to assume more or less the intermittent type. This "AGUE CURE" removes the cause of these derangements, and cures is not removed.

This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretories to expel the virus from the system; and these organs by degrees become habited to do this their office of their own accord. Hence arises what we term acclimatation. Time may accomplish the same end, but often life is not long enough, or is sacrificed in the attempt, while this "AGUE CURE" does it at once, and with safety. We have great reasons to believe this is a surer as well as safer remedy for the whole class of diseases which are caused by the miasmatic infection, than any other which has been discovered; and it has still another important advantage to the public, which is, that it is cheap as well as good.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, C. Cushing, President.

Hon. J. C. BRECKINRIDGE.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 9, 1860. DEAR SIR: I have your letter of the 23d ult., by which I am officially informed of my nomination for the office of President of the United States by the Democratic National Convention, lately assembled at Baltimington Journal for six weeks, notifying said defendants to more. The circumstances of this nomination will insti-

I have not sought nor desired to be placed before the country for the office of President. When my name was presented to the convention at Charleston it was withdrawn by a friend, in obedience to my expressed wishes. My views had not changed when the convention reassembled at Baltimore, and when I heard of the differences which occurred there, my indisposition to be connected prominently with the canvass was confirmed and expressed to many friends.

Without discussing the occurrences which preceded the nominations, and which are, or soon will be, well understood by the country, I have only to say that I approved, as just and necessary to the preservation of the national organization, and the sacred rights of representation, the action of the convention over which you continued to preside; and thus approving it, and having resolved to sustain it, I feel that it does not become me to select the position I shall occupy, nor to shrink from the responsibilities of the post to which I have been assigned. Accordingly I accept the nomination from a sense of public duty, and, as I think, uninfluenced, in any degree, by the allurements of ambition.

I avail myself of this occasion to say that the confidence in my personal and public character, implied by the action of the convention, will always be gratefully T appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the de- remembered, and it is but just also to my own feelings, fendants in this cause, William Millican, Evan Millican, to express my gratification at the association of my ished in the town of Wilmington, notifying the said defen- | trymen.

The resolutions adopted by the convention have my cordial approval. They are just to all parts of the Union, to all our citizens, native and naturalized, and they form a noble policy for any administration. The questions touching the rights of persons and property, which have of late been much discussed, find in these resolutions a constitutional solution. Our Union is a confederacy of equal, sovereign States, for the sovereignty can destroy or impair the rights of persons or property. The territorial governments are subordinate and temporary, and not sovereign; hence they cannot destroy or impair the rights of persons or property. While they continue to be territories they are under the control of Congress; but the constitution nowhere confers on any branch of the federal government the power to discriminate against the rights of the States or the property of their citizens in the Territories. It follows that the citizens of all the States may enter the Terri-out let or hindrance, either by Congress or by the subordinate territorial governments. These principles flow directly from the absence of sovereignty in the territorial governments, and from the equality of the States. Indeed, they are essential to that equality which is and ever has been the vital principle of our constitutional Union. They have been settled legislatively-settled judicially-and are sustained by right and reason. They rest on the rock of the constitution. They will preserve the constitution-they will preserve the Union.

It is idle to attempt to smother these great issues, or to misrepresent them by the use of partisan phrases, which are misleading and delusive. The people will look beneath such expressions as "intervention," "congressional slave code," and the like, and will penetrate to the real questions involved. The friends of constitutional equality do not and never did demand a "conaway in 1859, from Clark & Smith, near Georgetown, S. C., or $500 for either. SUT is about 27 years old, more than 6 gressional slave code," nor any other code in regard to feet high—very black and very likely, and will weigh about property in the Territories. They hold the doctrine of 180 pounds. LEWIS is just such another negro as Sut, exnon-intervention by Congress or by a territorial Legislature, either to establish or prohibit slavery; but they assert (fortified by the highest judicial tribunal in the Union) the plain duty of the federal government in all its departments, to secure when necessary, to the citizens of all the States the enjoyment of their property in the common Territories, as everywhere else within its juris-RANAWAY from the subscriber's plantation, last June, his negro boy PETER. Said Peter is a dark be to claim sovereign power for the Territories or to be to claim sovereign power for the Territories or to deny that the constitution recognizes property in the posed to be lurking about Long Creek, Lower Black River | services of negro slaves, or to deny that such property can exist. Inexorable logic, which works its steady way through clouds and passion, compels the country to meet the issue. There is no evasive middle ground. Already the signs multiply of a fanatical and growing party which denies that under the constitution, or by any other law, slave property can exist; and ultimately the struggle must come between this party and the national democracy, sustained by all the other conservative elements in

I think it will be impossible for a candid mind to discover hostility to the Union, or a taint of sectionalism in the resolutions adopted by the convention. The constitution and the Union repose on the equality of the States, which lies like a broad foundation underneath our whole political structure. As I construe them, the resolutions simply assert this equality. They demand nothing for any State or section that is not cheerfully conceded to all the rest. It is well to remember that the chief disorders which have afflicted our country have grown out of the violation of State equality; and that At a large and enthusiastic ratification meeting held as long as this great principle has been respected, we in Washington City on the 10th inst., Hon. Thomas B. have been blessed with harmony and peace. Nor will it be easy to persuade the country that resolutions are Florence read the following letter from Hon. stigmatized as disunionists, but they nobly conducted city on the 10th, and cannot consistently visit both places | the contest under the constitution, and saved our political system. By a like constitutional struggle it is intended now to assert and establish the equality of the States as the only basis of union and peace. When this object, so national, so constitutional, so just, shall be accomplished, the last cloud will disappear from the American sky, and with common hands and hearts the States and the people will unite to develop the resources of the whole country, to bind it together with the bonds of intercourse and brotherhood, and to impel it onward in its great career.
